

What does inclusion mean to you?

Equity

Learning Accessibility

Everyone succeeds

Connection to all

all

Opportunities for all students

Everyone belongs. Everyone matters.

Everyone seeing themselves as belonging

Including all abilities in the class

What does inclusion mean to you?

Equity

No one left behind

creating environments that meet students where they are at

ALL students are valued and treated with dignity

Making school effective for all students, staff and families.

equity for all students

All students learning in the same environment regardless of ability

Connection with all students

All learners being successful

What does inclusion mean to you?

Success for all

Equity not necessarily equality

Allowing all students to be successful no matter what academic, physical or mental ability. Everyone is able to participate and be an active member of a classroom

Adapt for success

mamawi- all together, or all at once.

a welcoming atmosphere for all

Community

Involving everyone; providing an opportunity for all

It is the safe and caring education for every student

What does inclusion mean to you?

respect, equality, diversity, equity, justice

Celebrating uniqueness within a community.

opportunity for everyone

Helping every student achieve learning to the best of their ability.

Teach to all abilities

learning for all, success for everyone

Opportunities for all to participate

Anyone of all abilities has the right to be included in the school environment

Everyone has access to the resources they require to succeed

What does inclusion mean to you?

All students experience some success on a daily basis.

There is space for everyone

success for all students

Making sure every child feels comfortable in a classroom and is able to learn in the classroom

Meeting the needs of diverse learners academically, socially and emotionally

Inclusion is the best opportunities and possibilities for each child.

a sense of belonging

Inclusion is finding ways to include everyone within a same group, task in order to highlight their abilities and allow everyone to participate actively

Inclusion is like bowling, aim for the outer pins and you will knock down them all. Aim for the middle (head pin) and you will only meet the needs of 20%

What does inclusion mean to you?

Inclusion is meaningful teaching and learning for all students despite their abilities/disabilities, identities, ethnicity, religious belief, socioeconomic status, etc.

Removing barriers for learning for all

Making sure that everyone feels welcome and safe in any environment.

All are welcome

All children matter, have a voice, and can find success as they develop and grow. Everything decision that is made at the school needs to be based on doing what's best for kids.

Learning that is accessible and meaningful for all students.

Meeting everyone where they are at.

Community

To be included in all aspects of learning and developing

What does inclusion mean to you?

Opportunity for all to belong and feel that they are heard and valued.

Inclusion means access quality learning and opportunities for everyone! It also means everyone has different needs, and those are met in different ways!

Everyone is welcome and able to learn

Individuals are met where they are at, strengths used to build upon knowledge, and all are celebrated and respected.

Commitment and intention leading to natural practice

all are welcome

Feeling a sense of belonging to a group as a whole

Every student can learn in their own way.

Spiritual beings

What does inclusion mean to you?

Every student is met at their level. Teach to each and every student. Differentiate!

provide a positive climate

the practice or policy of providing equal access to opportunities and resources for people who might otherwise be excluded or marginalized, such as those who have physical or mental disabilities and members of other minority groups.

accessible learning for all the action or state of including or of being included within a group or structure.

Having high expectations of every single student.

Inclusion is shared experiences, a sense of belonging and an environment that values equity and fosters advocacy.

Giving everyone equal opportunity and experience to learn with their peers in a way that gives everyone voice and success.

deadly

Which area or topic are you most interested in exploring?

- 1st | Item 1
- 2nd | Item 2
- 3rd | Item 3
- 4th | Item 4

