

CASS Communities of Practice

Human Resources/People Services

Table #	Primary Contact	Purpose Statement
1	Jodi Smith	This community of practice is intended for system education leaders who share an interest in Employee wellness and commit to learning together how best to engage employees in proactive strategies to enhance workplace satisfaction.
2	Carmen Ostafichuk	This community of practice is intended for system education leaders who share an interest in Human Resources and commit to learning together how best to balance all the factors involved when dealing with HR issues.
3	Kimberly Frykas	This community of practice is intended for system education leaders who share an interest in Human Resources and commit to learning together how best to enhance student learning with an initial focus on recruitment and retention.
4	Corrine Thorsteinson	This community of practice is intended for system education leaders who share an interest in supporting and developing capacity in school leaders and commit to learning together how best to nurture a strong group of leaders to lead our organizations into the future.
5	Jeannine Ellis	This community of practice is intended for system education leaders who share an interest in People Services and commit to learning together how best to build, grow and support staff to reach their potential to best meet the needs of students.
6	Justin Kool	This community of practice is intended for system education leaders who share a concern for the lack of quantity and quality of teachers and support staff and commit to learning together how best to recruit and retain staff.
7+	New Groups	New Groups